

vakils<sup>18</sup>° of the place. There is a perennial spring from the hill which supplies the garden with water.

Wednesda!;;J 15th Januar!;;J 1902

Today after work we drove to the Railway station which is nearly 4 miles from our place. On our return the horses refused to ascend the hill and we had to walk up.

Ms G. Narayanamurthi Raju's

secretary accompanied us.

r Thursda!;;J 16th Januar!;;J 1902

This morning quiet. Frame for the Raja's portrait arrived from Bombay. It was joined and the picture was put in it in the evening. It has added much to the beauty of the painting and the Raja admired it much.

Frida!;;J 17th Januar!;;J 1902

Being the anniversary of mother's death we left early for Simhachalam nearly 10 miles from our residence. There is an old temple of Narasimha on the top of the hill (800 ft) to which flight of granite steps lead [sic]. There are springs of fresh water. Performed Shradha. Returned at 4 p.m.

Saturda!;;J 18th Januar!;;J 1902

Left early for Rajamundry by mail train. Bade adieu to our friend the Raja last night. Met again in the train zamindar<sup>181</sup> of Kissimikota-a minor-going to Madras. Halted at Rajamundri at 11. Mr Krishna Rao his brother being absent, went round the town; bathed in the Godavary and left.

Sunda!;;J 19th Januar!;;J 1902

Arrived at Bezwada morning and were the guests of Ethirajulu Pillai. In the evening visited the Museum, where there is good portrait of Queen Victoria and the Krishna Anicut etc. along with Mr Pillai and his son.

Monda!;;J 20th Januar!;;J 1902

Ms Gajapathy Rao, our host's son, is an admirer of our pictures and has been writing to 'The Hindu' articles about them. We left at 10.30 a.m. for Secunderabad. In our compartment was a Roman Catholic priest going to Singarani and we had long conversation on religions [sic].

Tuesda!;;J 21st Januar!;;J 1902

Arrived early this morning at Secunderabad and are the guest of the Raja Dean Dayal and Sons,<sup>182</sup> photographers. Our bungalow is comfortable and

